FORWARD WITH WILSON, OR BACK TO THE GOOD-OLD-DAYS?

The issue of this election is told in the picture of the "Shady Lane" of Wall Street and the "Shadow Lawn" of the Nation's Summer · Capital.

With Wilson in the White House you know where you get offwith Hughes in the White House you wouldn't know when you'd be

The Republicans promised the workingman a full dinner pail-Wilson gave them three square meals a day, eight hours' work, and the highest wages known to history!

Wilson gave the farmer more than the G. O. P. ever had imagination enough to promise.

Why go on? You know what Wilson gave you. You know whether you are working or whether you are fighting. You know what kind of a job you've got. You know whether you are getting more wages now than you did four years ago. You know that we haven't had a panic in four years. You know what has been done to the old Payne Aldrich tariff.

Don't you seel the change? Don't you realize that we were headed toward the Tenantry system of Europe? And don't you realize that now the land is going back into the bands of owners?

You know that Wilson won't make war on Mexico to please Hearst and others who are similarly interested in that country. You know that he won't make war on Germany just to please Rooseveit, Root, Lodge, and Morgan.

You know that this Administration has done more for American business, big and little, high and low, every kind of business but crooked, than has been done in any torry years of American history. Do you want the impossible. Wilson has achieved it again and again.

When the Circat War broke out. American public opinion almost unanimously said: "Wilson can't possibly keep us out of it. Europe won't let us stay out of it. They can't afford to let us wear good clothes and a straight cose, and keep both eyes and both legs and all ten fingers and a house over our heads. They'll drag us in whether we want in or not. Misery loves company and they'll see to it that Wasn't that the argument that was passed from mouth we get in." to mouth in July and August of 1914?

Well, we re still over here, where we belong, minding our own business, sawing wood, working over-time, better paid than ever before, and little old Mexico is quieting down and her children will soon be in school and we'll have a neighbor we can be proud of and do business with, and look back with pleasure to the days when we big brothered it. And we're keeping our heads clear and our pockets and our stomachs full, and we'll be ready to lend a hand to battered, broised bleeding Europe when she tires of the fruitless, bootless game or cutting each other a throats,

There is just one line in which Europe today surpasses us: she has more noise, more hospitals, more cripples, and more tresh graves! If you don't know Wilson and what he stands for, it's because you have been too busy with your own personal prosperity. If you don't realize how safe you are in his hands for four years more, it is because you have felt so secure during his present Administration that you haven't felt the need of bothering about your safety.

Yes. You know Wilson. You can see him. You can peel him in your business. You can sense him in your homes. Do you want to go on with hom or-go Back!

Make no mistake. That's what it means. That is what Hoghes stands for. Go back—to the Good-Old-Pass.

That's the issue of this comparing the only issue. It has been variously labelled. It has been called Promises vs. Achievements, but hang it all! Mr. Hughes doesn't even make a specific promise! He has wasted some twenty thousand males of perfectly good conway travel trying to find an issue and he havn't got one yet. And the reason he can't find it. He's like the man that can't see the wonds for the
